OKTOBERFEST

24th - 29th September 2018

Fabulous Oktoberfest Facts

Munich beer only Oktoberfest is, above all, a celebration of Bavarian traditions, so the only beer you'll find during the festival is brewed within the city limits of Munich. Only beers that fit this criterion are considered Oktoberfest Beers.

Oktoberfest started as a wedding feast The first Oktoberfest was held to honour the marriage of Prince Ludwig and Therese of Saxe-Hildburghausen, in 1810. Now that's what we call a wedding party!

Nobody raises their beer mug until the Mayor says so Since 1950, the festival has only started after the official gun salute and the mayor shouting O'zapft is! ("It's tapped!") and offering the first mug to the Minister-President of the State of Bavaria. Only after that, can the festival start.

The hairier the hat, the wealthier the wearer During Oktoberfest, traditional visitors wear Bavarian hats (Tirolerhüte). The more tufts of goat hair on your hat, the wealthier you are considered to be. (Except nowadays the tufts are synthetic and everybody can look as wealthy or as poor as they like.)

Oktoberfest beer is only for the strong!! Oktoberfest beer has from 0.6 to 1.1% more alcohol and sugar than the average German beer, making it even easier for people to forget all their worries, their hats, their names...

Honey, I might've lost the kids Seems like losing your offspring is a rather common side effect of beer drinking. Fear not, however, there is a lost and found children office on the premises. Other lost and found possessions include wheelchairs, baby carriages, crutches and dogs (!).

You can't stop beer pouring In 200 years, Oktoberfest has only been cancelled 24 times. The causes were mostly war and cholera epidemics. On its 100th birthday 120,000 liters of beer were poured. That's about 1500 bathtubs worth!
